Department of Public Policy, Law and Governance runs very innovative M.A. and Ph. D. Programs which introduce students to the study of policy-making and implementation processes, the power of policy analysis and making judgments along with understanding of legal principles and operation of law in a composite society. The PPLG Programs is very innovative in the sense that it helps the students to seek practical knowledge, hence job-oriented in the fields of Government, non-governmental and private sectors, particularly at executive level.
