Prof. J. S. Rajput, a nominee of UGC has expressed that keeping in view that the selection of Vice Chancellor is also carried out through online mode and vacancies of various teaching positions are to be filled up very expeditiously, he has agreed for the Selection Committee Meetings to be conducted by online mode and mentioned in favour of opening envelopes containing the Selection Committee Reports and also suggested that when there is dissent from members, opinion of majority members is to be taken in order to take a decision in the meeting. Every individual Member has been asked about his/her opinion. One Member, Dr. Akhil Ranjan Garg has given his dissent note as regards opening the envelopes containing the Selection Committee Reports. All the other Members were in favour of conducting of Selection Committee Meetings by online mode and agreed for opening of envelopes containing the Selection Committee Reports. Dr. Mohammad Naeem, (a representative of Principal Secretary, Higher Education, Government of Rajasthan) has expressed his concern on the matter with reference to the letter received from Mr. Bharat Bhushan Bhagat, Deputy Secretary (CU), MHRD and is of the opinion that the matter can be kept in abeyance till some clarity emerges on the matter. Another Member, Prof. Reena Dadhich has expressed that after opening of envelopes a report be sent to MHRD and appropriate action need to be taken after that.

As majority of members of Executive Council have expressed their approval on conducting of Selection Committee Meetings in online mode and also agreed for opening of the envelopes, the envelopes have been opened and recommendations of the Selections Committee Reports have been read out. The names of the selected candidates against various teaching positions as recommended by the Selection Committees have been as follows:

S. No.	Post	Name of Selected Candidate
1	Associate Professor (SC), Hindi	Dr. Shital Prasad Mahendra
2	Associate Professor (UR), Linguistics#	Dr. Hemanga Dutta
